

ZONE GRISE

Franchis la ligne. Entraîne tes amis.

---

Zone Grise is a party card game from Pinnacle Media, for adults. Players read scandalous scenarios and try to guess whether their friends will agree or disagree with the bad decisions they describe, then argue to change each other's minds. It launches on Kickstarter in 2027.

|                       |                                                                                   |
|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| TITLE          | Zone Grise                                                                        |
| PUBLISHER      | Pinnacle Media                                                                    |
| DESIGNER       | Geoff Brown                                                                       |
| PLAYERS        | 3–15                                                                              |
| PLAY TIME      | 15–80 minutes                                                                     |
| AGE            | Adults (Blurred Lines, the teen edition: 12–18)                                   |
| IN THE BOX     | 300 cards: 280 scenarios, 18 AGREE / DISAGREE cards, 2 Jokers                     |
| EXPANSION SETS | 50 cards each. Currently: Trolley Problems, Science & Tech, Philosophy, Cyberpunk |
| LAUNCH         | Kickstarter, 2027                                                                 |
| CONTACT        | info@blurredlines.cc                                                              |

---

Review copies are available. Email us with your outlet and audience.

(c) 2026 Pinnacle Media. All rights reserved.

Images in this kit may be reproduced for editorial coverage.